

House Resolution No. 3013

Whereas, it is with great pride and sincere admiration that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding Missouri citizen who has demonstrated exceptional skill as a leader of his peers; and

Whereas, Adam Arnett of Blue Springs, Missouri, recently received top honors for excellence in competition during the 2004 International DECA Career Development Conference held in Nashville, Tennessee; and

Whereas, one of seventeen high school students to receive international recognition, Adam Arnett put forth a tremendous degree of effort while competing with sixteen thousand of the best and brightest high school marketing students from across the United States and Canada; and

Whereas, DECA's internationally recognized program of competitive events uses interviews, tests, role-plays, and written project reports to evaluate marketing and management skills identified by the national business community as essential for success in the business world of today; and

Whereas, an outstanding student at Blue Springs South High School in Blue Springs where he has been named a DECA Seventh Place state winner in the Food Marketing Associate Level Event, Adam Arnett received Top 10 honors in International DECA Competition in the Food Marketing Associate Level Event; and

Whereas, Adam Arnett holds local, state, and national DECA membership and takes pride in the enviable list of achievement he has attained at Blue Springs South High School as a Triathlete and member of DECA and the Jazz Band; and

Whereas, Adam Arnett has achieved his every ambition with the love, support, and encouragement he has continually received from his proud and loving parents, Gary and Tammy Arnett:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Adam Arnett at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing him only the very best of success in all his future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Adam Arnett as he is honored at the Missouri Governor's Mansion in Jefferson City on May 14, 2004.
